Whether it is legal liability or moral responsibility, individuals who coordinate and arrange for groups to travel internationally create a great deal of liability for their ministry or school.

Assuming, or even requiring, that all travelers have medical protection does not shield the group organizer from liability. Inadequate coverage or the trip leader's inability (lack of training) to assist a traveler during an emergency, accident, or sickness, can lead to out-of-pocket expenses the ministry may be obligated to cover.

For as little as $2 a day, everyone in your group can be covered; and equally important the trip leader can call upon trained experts to coordinate any type of emergency need.
