

Associate Pastor for Community and Missions

Northminster Baptist Church is seeking its next Associate Pastor for Community and Missions. This is a full-time, pastoral position.

Role Overview

The Associate Pastor for Community and Missions serves as the primary pastoral leader for the church's service and missions ministries, and additionally serves as a member of the pastoral team leading in worship, providing pastoral care, and participating in general pastoral leadership to the congregation. This role requires a proactive, entrepreneurial leader who can identify opportunities, mobilize people, and bring new ministry initiatives through to impact and completion. Reports to the Pastor and Board of Deacons.

Credentials and Experience

- Bachelor's degree required.
- MDiv or equivalent theological training preferred.
- Significant professional experience working in community ministry, missions, or social work.

Responsibilities

Pastoral Leadership in Northminster Missions Efforts:

- Coordinate all areas of Northminster's missions and service ministries.
- Collaborate with the Wider Net Committee, Denominational Relations Committee and Direct and Local Missions Committee to identify mission partners and facilitate regular service opportunities for the congregation.
- In collaboration with congregational leadership, discern and facilitate regional, national, or international mission partnerships and trips that deepen congregational engagement.

Direct Wider Net Ministry:

- Collaborate with the Wider Net Committee to coordinate and reimagine the church's ongoing presence and ministry in Jackson's Midcity/Georgetown neighborhood
- Foster relationships between the members of our congregation and neighborhood, acting as a bridge to connect community needs with the abilities of church members.
- Provide vision, administrative oversight and project management for Wider Net projects and initiatives.

Send resume and cover letter to search@northminsterbaptist.org. Northminster is a vibrant, multi-generational congregation situated in the Eastover neighborhood in Northeast Jackson, Mississippi. Ecumenical in spirit, our primary denominational partner is the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.